

Large Animal Handling Technical Rescue and Sheltering

This course provides instruction on large animal handling including haltering herding and trailering as well as technical rescue techniques using straps, large animal glides, and slings. This course also included large animal sheltering.