

Program Provider:

MedVet

Program Date:

May 27, 2025

4-5pm CT

Program Title and Credit Requested:

Recognizing & Treating Anaphylaxis

1.0 credit hour for Veterinary Technicians

Program Description:

This live interactive medical program for veterinary professionals will review the typical signs and symptoms of canine anaphylaxis, plus focus on triage and treatment for the anaphylactic patient.

Agenda/Outline:

- Introduction
- Reviewing signs & symptoms
- Progression
- Pathophysiology
- Diagnostics
- treatment plans for canine patients
- Reviewing difference of signs & symptoms in the feline patient
- Q&A

Learning Objectives:

1. Signs and symptoms of anaphylaxis.
2. The cause and progression of anaphylaxis.
3. Treatment plans for anaphylaxis.

Presenter:

Julia Fincher, DVM

Emergency Medicine Veterinarian

<https://www.medvet.com/doctor/julia-fletcher/>

(CV attached to application)