

Toxic Trouble: Rapid Recognition and Response

Clinical Tools for Managing Small Animal Toxicities

This 2-hour session provides a practical, case-based overview of small animal toxicities, covering decontamination techniques, antidote use, and supportive care. Specific toxins will be discussed with emphasis on mechanisms, diagnostics, and treatment protocols. By the end of the session, attendees will be equipped with practical tools to stabilize, prioritize, and effectively manage toxicities in small animal emergency practice.