

This lecture will cover diagnosis, prognosis and considerations when performing surgery for septic peritonitis. We will also discuss numerous complications that can occur and should be covered with owners.