

Introduction to veterinary acupuncture and rehabilitation in companion Animals

Dr. Lynn Britton

Course will provide an in-depth introduction to veterinary acupuncture, including the history, mechanisms of action, clinical implications, and case reviews. I will also provide an introduction to rehabilitation therapy, and if time allows, I will review strategies for improving pain control in our companion animals.