

2 day- Slack Water 1 Rescue training for Animal Responders 8am – 5pm each day

This two-day slack water training will include flood water safety, personal protection equipment, boat operations, small animal capture and containment techniques. The training will include both classroom and hands-on training to provide students with operational skills for rescuing animals in flood water.